PROFILE....

Nexicom Systems provides HDPE (High Density Polyethylene) conduit for the communication market applications including FTTH (Fibre to the Home), wireless backhaul, the cloud, data storage, network construction, broadband and legacy networks. The reels have no deposit and can be returned at the end of each construction season. Our preference is to schedule a flatbed that can be fully loaded and returned to the manufacturer....

Nexicom also stocks hundreds of the different sizes of couplers and caps
